Hiyoshi Taisha Shrine Auxiliary Shrine -
Shirayamahime Shrine Main Hall

Important Cultural Property

[A.D.1595]

The Shirayamahime Shrine Main Hall is a large scale nagare-zukuri style constructed building with a cypress bark roof. It has a similar structure to the Main Hall of Hiyoshi Taisha Shrine's Auxiliary Shrine, Juge Shrine, but differs in its lack of decorative metalwork and more modest construction. The current hall was constructed in 1595, and was designated an Important Cultural Property in 1906.
